To Our Readers.

Any neglect on the part of our Carriers to deliver the STANDARD at the proper time and place will be promptly remedied on application at the Publication Office, next door to the Bank of British Columbia, Government Street.

The Daily Standard.

Saturday, December 17, 1870.

It is not Can't, but Won't.

The Government of this country will make the attempt to prevent the establishment of Responsible Government simultaneously with Confederation. It has an ally in the Colonist, and will have others in the six nominees in the Council, at its next session. The public are not surprised at any change in the views of that journal. Change is written on its almost every page. It is a perfect ignis fatuus, luring the people on to disappointment. Fixity of purpose is nowhere visible in its advocacy of any great principle associated with the progress of the Colony. It is one thing to-day, and another the next, and nothing long. In 1868, it was prepared to throw Confederation overboard, when the Columbian was characterized in the Oregon papers as the mouth-piece of Annexation. Now it is prepared to throw overboard the right of the people to Self-Government. If such a change were due to a recognised alteration in public opinion, there would be an excuse; but when there is no change in public opinion—when the people are as anxious for Responsible Government as they ever were—we can only regard its advocacy of throwing over Responsible Government to a desire to play into the hands of the accidental few who administer the Government of this Colony. It has said, "We are for Responsible Government simultaneously with Confederation." Yesterday, however, it said, "We want Responsible Government with Confederation, but we will take Confederation without Responsible Government." Now this, we repeat, is throwing popular expectation overboard; and for this reason. An argument is no stronger than its weakest point. The weak point in the Colonist's argument is its willingness to accept Confederation without Responsible Government. It is equivalent to saying "never mind self-government,—we will continue to submit to irresponsible authority under Canada, as we have under Downing Street rule, if Confederation can be attained." It is matter of history that they did not get self-government in Red River till they rebelled; and the policy of the Colonist tends to produce a similar result here; or at least to keep up such a state of irritability as to destroy all cordiality and all harmony between the people of this country and the Government of the Dominion, and wean the sympathies of the people of this Colony from its natural parent, the Central Government at Ottawa, and turn them in favor of an alliance elsewhere. Sum up the new change in the Colonist's views, and it is simply a shameless desertion of the popular cause. But we have said enough of the ignis fatuus. We will now examine the views of the representative members of the Council. Mr. Carrall has pledged himself to the people of Cariboo to vote for "Responsible Government simultaneously with Confederation" Mr. Humphreys is pledged to Responsible Government at once; or to use his own words "Confederation means Responsible Government to the people on the Mainland. No Responsible Government means with the Mainland, no Confederation. Mr. Cornwall has not expressed any opinion on the subject in his address, although Yale district is an unit for Responsible Government. Mr. Nelson was elected to get that form of Government in conjunction with Confederation." Dr. Helmcken pledged himself, on the hustings, to vote for Responsible Government simultaneously with Confederation. Mr. Nathan did the same. Mr. Bunster the same. Mr. DeCosmos has always advocated the same principle, Mr. Skinner is also in favor of it. Here then are eight members—eight elective members out of nine—who have boldly pledged themselves to support Responsible Government—that is changeable and responsible heads of departments instead of unchangeable and irresponsible heads of departments. The country like the elective members is almost an unit on the question. Such being the case, it would be shameless desertion, indeed, on the part of any elective member, to vote for Confederation without a guarantee that Confederation and Responsible Government shall be ushered into the Colony, simultaneously. Whatever differences may divide our views from some of the members, yet we believe that each and all of the elected members are too honorable to violate their plighted faith to the people on Responsible Government. Such being the case, we assume that there is a numerical majority of the new Council who are in favor of Responsible Government. We naturally ask, then, whence comes the opposition to it? It comes from Gov. Musgrave, Mr. Trutch, Mr Henkin, Mr. Hamly and Mr. Fillipo, and their mouth-piece, the Colonist. Now, so far as Gov. Musgrave is concerned, he ought to be very glad to get Confederation through under his administration, without attempting to deprive the people of their dearest rights; and as for his Executive Councillors, they ought to be content with their promised pensions rather than plot against the liberties of the people, on whom they have been dependent on for years for a living. It is not that there is any practical difficulty in the way of the inauguration of Responsible Government simultaneously with Confederation; it is not that Gov. Musgrave CAN'T concede self-government,—for the Imperial statutes allow the Colony to change its constitution; but it is because, if cause there be, that he WON'T; for not one of his official mouth-pieces can give a reason for his conduct in attempting to withhold the right of self-government from the people of this Colony.

to the NEW FRENCH HOTEL,

GOVERNMENT STREET.

Where she intends carrying on the Business she so successfully managed on Fort Street. She begs to thank her former customers, and hope they will patronize her in her more extensive undertaking, assuring them that as she has made arrangements for the arrival of GOODS by each vessel from European Manufactories, that she is in a position to offer her wares at the LOWEST PRICE and that no attention shall be wanting to give the greatest satisfaction.

She takes this opportunity to warn all purchasers against CHEAP CANDIES as she sells none but from the well known House of Weatherspoon, whose guarantee and Analysis has proved that their Candies contain no whiting and other deleterious matter, and therefore purchasers should not look so much to Cheapness as the health of themselves and their children.

MRS. JOHNSTONE would further intimate that

Voyage from Portland to Sitka.

MEMORANDA.

The steamer California, Capt. Rogers, left Portland on November 17; arrived at Astoria on the 18th; crossed the Columbia river bar at 4:30 p. m., on the 18th; passed Cape Flattery light house at 6 a. m., on the 19th; arrived at Port Townsend at 4:30 p. m.; left at 6 a. m., on the 20th; arrived at San Juan Island at 11:30 a. m., on the same day; arrived at Victoria at 2:30 p. m., on the 20th; left Victoria on the 22d; arrived at Nanaimo the same day; took on board 120 tons of coal and left for Sitka at 9 a. m., on the 23d; passed through the Euclutaw rapids at 6 p. m.; entered Queen Charlotte sound at 9 a. m., on the 24th, blowing at the time a strong S. E. gale; entered Fitz Hugh Sound at noon; came to anchor in Safety Cove at one p. m., on the 24th; left the cove on the 25th; entered Lama passage at 9:30 a. m.; passed McLaughlin Bay at 10:35, a. m.; entered Kilbank Sound at 12:30, p. m.; entered Finlayson Channel at 1:40, p. m.; came to anchor (being blowing and raining very hard) at Carter Bay, at 4:5 p. m., on the 25th; stormy and blowing hard all night; barometer at 29. Left Carter Bay at 5 a. m., on the 26th; passed Red Bluff point at 8 a. m.; passed Kingsome point at 9:33 a. m.; entered Granville Channel at 10:10 a. m.; at 1:30 p. m., passed Evening Point; weather turned into a miserable wet snow-storm; anchored at Corduras Bay at 4 p. m., on the 26th; left at 1:40 a. m., on the 27th; passed Tugwell Island at 4:23; arrived at Tongas at 7:20 a. m.; left at 9 a. m.; arrived at Fort Wrangle at 11:25. From Wrangle to Tongas is 187 miles; the California made the distance in 14 hours and 25 minutes, which is 13¼ miles per hour. The average time of the California, from San Juan Island to Wrangle, was 11 miles an hour. Left Wrangle on the 28th; passed Cape Decision at 3 p. m.; passed Prince Fredrick Sound at 9:35 p. m.; got aground in Pearl Straits at 8 a. m., the 29th; got off and proceeded to Sitka at 9 a. m., Dec. 1st. after lying aground 49 hours; arrived at Sitka at 3:30 p. m. The ship laid 2 days at Sitka, discharging freight and waiting for the mails. Left Sitka Dec. 4 h; laid the ship too a great part of the night, in a severe snow storm; arrived at Wrangle on the 5th, being still snowing and blowing very severe; laid at anchor at Wrangle all day, and left in the evening, at 10 o'clock; after being out about 4 hours was obliged to heave the ship too again; snowing and blowing very hard; on Dec. 6th the snow squalls continued; at dark it commenced to blow and snow severely, being compelled to run into Fort Simpson. Next day left for Portland; arrived at Nanaimo on Dec. 11th; detained at Nanaimo five days, waiting for coal; left Nanaimo Dec. 16th, at 3 a. m.; stopped and landed mails at San Juan Island, and arrived at Victoria at 1:30 p. m.

A GRAND DISPLAY.—At the sales-room of Mr. J. P. Davies & Co., Wharf street, can be seen one of the grandest displays of oil paintings, oligraphs, cutlery, jewelry, and fancy goods of all kinds, which we have ever seen in this city. The store will be open to-day, to allow visitors to look at the articles to be sold on Tuesday; also, this evening, between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock We must say there has been a great deal of style displayed by Mr. J. P. Davies in arranging the goods, which he will offer to the public, by auction, regardless of cost. Before buying presents elsewhere it will be well to take a look at his splendid selection. Remember that the sale is on Tuesday morning, at 11 o'clock.

MECHANICS' INSTITUTE.—Every person is aware of the benefits which are derived from the Mechanic's Institute in the city. It is a little in debt, which every person is aware of, and we hope that on Monday night the theatre will be crowded to witness the celebrated Amateur Musical Concert. The Committee of arrangements are not leaving a stone unturned to make the affair a success. Remember Monday evening.

FROM NEW WESTMINSTER.—The steamer Enterprise, Capt. Swanson, arrived from New Westminster last night, at 11 o'clock, with about 40 passengers and a Cariboo mail and express Among the passengers were Miss Haynes, Capt. Parsons, Capt. Mitchell, E. Murray, J. Robinson, J. Fravel, S. Herring, and 20 others. The Enterprise took a cargo of hay from Langley to Burrard Inlet.

EXECUTED.—On Wednesday, at Nanaimo, the Indian, Jim, who was found guilty of the murder of Hamilton, was hung for his crime. He protested his innocence up to the last, and said that Quanim was the guilty party. The mother of Jim, who was witnessing the scene, said that some of the white people would suffer for the killing of her son. The feeling at Nanaimo it very strong against Quanim.

FROM SITKA.—The North Pacific Transportation Company's steamship California, Capt. Rogers, arrived in the harbor, yesterday, at 1:30 o'clock, from Sitka via Nanaimo, where she took on board several tons of coal for her own use. The California experienced very rough weather the entire trip. She will leave for Portland on Sunday morning, at daylight.

SHOOTING.—Remember the shooting at Mr. Henley's, to-day, for a purse of $20; also for pigs, turkies, geese, etc. Shooting will commence at noon and last all day. Entrance, $1; three shots, at 100 yards.

OMINECA.—A Frenchman, whose name we did not learn, arrived on the Enterprise last night, from Germansen Creek, Omineca. He has a nugget in his possession weighing 24 ounces, which he took out of his c'aim.

PRACTICE.—The Tiger steam engine was out for practice, yesterday afternoon, at the corner of Government and Johnson streets. She worked very satisfactorily under the charge of one of the amateur engineers.

METHODIST CHURCH.—The Rev. Mr. Huntington, of Olympia, is in town, and will preach in the Wesleyan Methodist Church on Sunday, both morning and evening. We learn that Mr. Huntington is a very cleaver speaker.

TO TANNERS.—Parties wishing hemlock bark, for tanning purposes, had better attend the sale by Mr. J. P. Davies, this morning, at 11 o'clock, at the H. B. Co.'s wharf.

NEW GOODS.—Jouvin's Gloves, &c., just received at the Victoria House. *

In Chambers.

[Before the Chief Justice.]

In the matter of the Queen Charlotte Coal Mining Company, Limited—In liquidation.

On an application on summonses, by the Attorney General, on behalf of the mortgagees, His Lordship ordered that the first monies arising from the calls actually made at the date of the deed, and from the sale of the property in mortgage, should be paid to the mortgagees, with liberty to them to apply to the Court for leave to exercise their power of sale in the mortgage at any time. Some of the creditors appeared, to oppose in person; and Mr. McCreight, instructed by Drake, Jackson & Aikman appeared for the Liquidators.

MASONIC BALL.—On the 27th inst. the Masonic Fraternity of this city intend giving a grand ball at the Alhambra Hall, Government street.

LOADING.—The ship Shooting Star and the barkentine Victor are loading at Nanaimo for San Francisco. They will complete their loading in a few days.

FAVORS.—We are indebted to Mr. Goodhue, the gentlemanly and obliging Purser of the steamer California, for favors received.

FRAIN'S COAL.—Leave your orders for Frain's coal at the store of Messrs. R. P. Pickett & Co., Yates street.

FOR PUGET SOUND.—The steamer Isabel left at 11 o'clock yesterday morning with about 30 passengers.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Cariboo Mining Summary.

QUESNELLE, B. C. Dec. 16—The following is taken from the Cariboo Sentinel of the 10th inst.:

WILLIAM CREEK

the severe weather which set in during the latter part of last week has had the effect of putting a stop to a great many of the claims. The Forest Rose Company washed up last week for about half a weeks work 125 ozs. The Bed-Rock Drain Company are at work in the Cariboo ground, cleaning out the drain.

LOWER CREEK.

The Brown Company last week washed up 42 ozs. The Victoria Company have been kept back by a cave in their tunnel.

FRENCH CREEK.

The North American Company last week washed up 57 ozs., there ground looks very faverable. The International Conpany at the mouth of the creek, are about starting a tunnel and some of the companies between there and the North American will start prospecting shortly. The Cosmopolitan and Ambrose, joint tunnel, are pushing ahead steadily and they hope to strike bed rock in a few days.

LIGHTNING CREEK.

The Lightning Company last week washed up 227 ozs. for five days work, when they were compelled to knock off in consequence of ice backing up the water in their tail race. The Spruce Company last week washed up 58 ozs. The Van Winkle Company have been drowned out again just as they were supposed to be on the eve of striking the deep channel. The water burst in through the rock which, is very soft, faster than their pumps could take it out. They are now rigging up their large iron pump with which they expect to have no difficulty in going on with their work.

The weather is clear and cold. The thermometer 1° below zero.

EUROPE.

LONDON, Dec. 14—A World's cable says the Germans are near Tours, and offer battle on both sides of the river.

General Fairderbe, with the 22d corps, having re-captured Taffersbane and St. Quentine, is moving on Laon.

Mantuffel has abandoned the attack on Havre, and is moving south to aid Prince Fredrick Charles.

A sortie, from Paris, is hourly expected. The French losses in the late sorties, according to official reports, was 2,500 killed and 5,022 wounded.

Anxiety about the result of the Luxemburg affair causes much depression in business of all kinds.

The new German loan is already quoted at a premium.

The Prussians have occupied Blois.

A Herald correspondent at Versailles telegraphed on the 9th that everything was quiet, and that the weather was intensly cold.

It is reported that Palladines insists on having a court martial.

The French are indignant against Gambetta.

Great stagnation continues, and the neighborhood is strangely peaceful, tranquility being only disturbed by an occasional gun from Mont Valerian.

The general belief is, that voting is proceeding in Paris, on the question of further resistance.

A summary of Grant's message is received. It is considered that it is of a war-like character, and will have the effect of making England agree to all the Russian propositions.

BORDEAUX, Dec. 14.—The Government here has given to the public, as yet, no news from Paris. The excitement in the city is intense. People are coming from all quarters to hear the news of the great sortie which they believed had taken place at Paris.

It is said that an aid-de-camp of Trochu's had arrived here.

A review was held here, to-day, of the battalions which are to set out to reinforce the army of the Loire. An immense number of troops, well equipped, were on the ground. The Franc-tireurs were very active. We hear of their exploits in all parts of the country. Several convoys of provisions have recently been surprised by them, and many Prussians captured.

The Garibaldians have inflicted heavy losses, in killed and wounded on the enemy, in the Eastern Department, and have impeded their progress.

The Government of the National Defence have made Riccioth Garibaldi a member of the Legion of Honor.

Tours is no longer surrounded. The enemy are retreating toward Paris.

Gambetta is not coming to Bordeaux. He has gone back to the army of the Loire, to remain with it for the present.

WILHELMSHOHS, Dec. 14—The Emperor is in good health, and has received visits from Chevalier Wikoff, of New York, and Casagnac. Bazaine is confined to his room by illness. In a conversation with the Emperor, he declared that he would soon return to Paris by military power; that the people four times approved his election, and they alone have a right to return him. He further declared that, of his own knowledge, the Duke du Aumale had for years persuaded the Orleanists to enter the army.

LONDON, Dec. 14—The cotton mills of Foltun have been destroyed by fire.

Havre and Bonfleur are quiet. A force of 30,000 men have been thrown out to confront the Germans. Havre is filled with war material.

A gunboat is on the Seine. No Prussians are discovered by the scouts.

The Prussians were surprised at Chambord.

Some Mobiles and franc-tireurs asserted that the Prussians have not injured Chateau. It is reported that they bombarded Blois and now occupy one of the Faubourgs of Tours. Gambetta was there when the Prussians demanded the surrender. He had a bridge blown up for the defence, as it was needed to secure the forces under Chancey, which had moved towards the west, where they will be heavily reinforced and resume the offensive.

BORDEAUX, Dec. 14—Gambetta reports Bourbaki's force in good condition.

The report that the Prussians are at Tours is contradicted.

A dispatch from Rouen says the Prussians have retreated from Verunil and Dreux towards Chartres, from Versailles.

Dispatches from the East show a number of small successes for the French.

LONDON, Dec. 14—The official report of the surrender of Pfalsburg states that 52 officers, 1,839 men, and 63 guns were captured with the fortress.

Montmedy has repulsed the besiegers. They did not bombard the town, as reported. They battered the walls with solid shot, and as soon as they effected a breach, the place capitulated.

The capture of Lafer is contradicted. The Prussians passed the town without attacking it. Engagements have occurred favorable to the French.

MUNICH, Dec. 14—The Chamber of Deputies have voted a further military credit of forty-one million florins, and a provisional levy of taxes is asked. The Federal treaty is referred to a special committee.

BERLIN, Dec. 14—A correspondent says that the suspension of the bombardment of Paris will be detrimental to military operations. The objects of interest of the army are paramount considerations. A cannonade at the right moment would insure the immediate future success.

HAVRE, Dec. 14—The Prussians are retreating from this section of the country.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 14—A levy of six men in every hundred is ordered, to replace the men lost, in consequence of the shortening of the term of service in 1871.

LONDON, Dec. 15—The Prussians are at Contras, Mont Richard, Rouen, and Tours.

The Moniteur says that the French have been reinforced at all points.

It is said that a French iron-clad accidentally hit the U. S. steamer Shenandoah, in the harbor at Havre. An apology was sent to her commander.

Thirty thousand French are training at Bordeaux.

VIENNA, Dec. 14—Austria adheres unreservedly to the decision of the Conference, wishing to maintain the guarantees yet, to spare Russia's susceptibility.

LONDON, Dec. 15—The Tribune says: It is not England's duty alone to resist the absorption of Luxemburg. Prussia is thus satisfied to forego Lorraine

EASTERN STATES.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16—The ridiculous story telegraphed here from Europe, that President Grant had withdrawn the autograph letter to the Emperor Alexandria, tendering him the aid of a fleet of war vessels, in case of war, is a mere fiction, not deemed worthy of contradiction until recently, when it has been reported here.

Private telegrams received here from Europe, regarding the last phase of the Eastern question, and new complications by the Luxemburg difficulty, give rise to a very uneasy feeling. It is known here that these matters have been discussed in official quarters with unusual warmth. Further developments are anxiously awaited.

CALIFORNIA

LOS ANGELOS, Dec 14—Yesterday Magnell Lachenais shot and killed Jacob Bell an old and well known resident of this city. The trouble arose about a piece of land claimed by both parties which Bell was ploughing. Lachenais approached him and after exchanging a few angry words left, but soon returned and began firing at Bell. After the first shot, firing became mutual, resulting in the death of Bell. Lachenais is said to be a desperado and is accused of two or three previous murders. He is now in custody. Threats of lynching him were freely used but no violence was attempted.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 15—Arrived, steamer Oriflamme from Portland.

A suit was brought to-day by Isaac S Henry, against the schooner Zelina, for an alleged breach of passage contract and indecent conduct towards his wife and daughter on the trip from Tahiti to this port.

An inquest in the case of Bow, who was killed in a house of ill fame on Sunday was postponed until to-morrow.

It is rumored that a suit will be commenced immediately against Alfred Clarke, a policeman, for $6,000 damages for refusing to give up the Marysville lottery tickets which he seized a few days ago from the agent. Goodman having obtained possession of them by pretending purchase but without paying for them

STOCKTON, Dec. 15—The London Eureka Company has brought a suit against the Stocton and Copperopolis Railroad Company to recover 7,500 damages sustained by the construction of the railroad on a portion of their pike.

ALBANY, Oregon, Dec. 15—Last Saturday a man named Sampson, while working in C. Wright's warehouse fell from a platform made of large boards, breaking his wrist.

Bismarck on the Situation.

We copy from the San Francisco Alta of Nov. 27th the following:

LONDON, Nov. 26.—[World's London special]—The special correspondent of the World, who left Versailles November 21st, brings the following report of an interview he had with Bismarck that day:

Correspondent—What is the explanation of the great dissatisfaction expressed in Germany at the plan of the campaign, especially in relation to Paris?

Bismarck—The capture of Paris is clamored for to satisfy the folks at home, and it must be accomplished sooner or later. Respecting the time and means for effecting this, public opinion is widely astray. It bestows animadversions unjustly; had my counsel been followed, Paris would have been attacked long ago.

Correspondent—Your Excellency says that your counsels were overruled?

Bismarck—When the forces led by Von Blumenthal, after the victories of Weissenberg and Weorth, emerged from the Vosges, and marched toward Chalons, where the cavalry under Prince Albrecht stood, Von Moltke decided that they should come up and help to annihilate the army so hurriedly abandoned at Chalons. I urge that they should be ordered to continue their march on Paris, then unprepared for a siege, and take it, or at least cut it off from the rest of France, which should have been over-run as quickly as possible. When the Department of Seine-et-Oise was reached it was found a nut hard to crack. Then there was a new question: how was the kernal to be reached? First, we determined on bombardment, with the intention to open a secret park of artillery at Villa Aubley. Everything was complete, and the proofs of the efficiency of this measure were accepted; but now came a new disagreement. The King, under the advice of Von Moltke, decided to let famine reduce the Capital, trusting that the discord among the the Parisians would continue to hasten the surrender.

Correspondent—But this plan was universally supposed to be your own.

Bismarck—So far is the opinion from the truth that I never ceased to disguise my indignation at being no longer made a party to councils wherein great questions were decided. In 1866 no important propositions were decided without having my advice; now, there are great changes—whole plans adopted without consulting me. Those who say that it is my fault that Paris has not been bombarded are wholly in error; I have most ardently desired it, and most strenuously urged it.

Correspondent—But at least you have the satisfaction of uniting Germany.

Bismarck—Ah, no; I attribute the halting and partial failure of the attempt for German unity to the delay resulting from those opposing schemes. Had my advice been followed, the people of Bavaria and Wurtemburg would have be carried in on the wave which swept over Germany, and the grand scheme of United Faterland—Deutcher Kaiser would have become a reality instead of the half-hearted Confederation now about to be born; for the great object of the war never lay on this side of the Rhine but on the other side, where I meant should exist one great country, one great people and one great Emperor.

This extraordinary conversation was held under peculiar circumstances, which cannot now be stated, but I have given almost the exact words used by the Chancellor.

The military situation this morning is very critical. The advance guard of the Duke of Mecklemburg is at Conlie, thirteen miles from Le Mans.

A Dead Irishman Discovered.

HE IS CARRIED TO TWO HOSPITALS—HORRIBLE DISCOVERY BY THE PHYSICIANS—FINNEGAN'S WAKE AGAIN.

A new iron building is going up on the corner of Park Place and Broadway, the fifth story of which has already been completed. About 4 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon a French sympathiser, who was in the employ of the builder in the humble capacity of bricklayer's clerk, became slightly under the influence of the reported French victory, and having got safely to the top, began to have grave doubts about the advisability of coming down again via the ladder. To make this sure, he fastened a basket to a hoisting rope, and getting carefully into it, let himself gradually down. He arrived safely on terra firma unobserved, but the basket unfortunately topped over on the ground, and Paddy was too drunk to rise.

Seeing him lying there, and knowing the cause, a crowd of 500 persons gathered almost immediately, under the supposition that he had fallen from the scaffolding. He was picked up and carried to the Centre Street Hospital dead drunk, and carefully examined by two physicians, who failed to find a single cut or bruise upon his body. Fearing, however, that he might be injured internally, they ordered him to be taken to the Bellevue Hospital for a more thorough examination. An ambulance was sent for, for and he was put into it and taken up to Twenty-sixth street, where he was put upon a stretcher and carried into the accident ward. The most minute scrutiny again could not discover even a breakage of the skin, and the worthy disciples of Æsculapius were at a loss to determine what should be done with the patient when Dr. Marsh's nose happened accidently to come with range of his teeth. He immediately started back, and shouted to the "cursed drunken fool," to "get up off that stretcher," an order which, to the astonishment of all, was immediately obeyed. Pat then, in reply to the doctor's questioning, explained in a maudling way how he came to be there, and was at once given in charge of a policeman, who took him to the Third Precinct Police Station, and locked him up on a charge of being drunk and disorderly.

Ireland has sent us a prime donna in the person of Miss Rosa O' Toole, who will soon commence a concert tour through the United States.

PERSONAL.—Whilst deploring the spirit which induces some writers to bring their individual affairs under the notice of a public to whom they have but little interest, A. B. Gray takes pleasure in calling attention to the receipt of his annual supply of Fall Dry Goods, specially selected for this market, just received. An inspection of his stock is invited, which will be found to comprise all the usual staples of his branch of business, together with a varied assortment of the most recent Fancy Novelties.—Government Street, December, 1870. *

We have seen the line paintings and Oliographs to be sold by J. P. Davies & Co., on Tuesday, December 20th. They are well worth the attention of connoisseurs. Among them will be found likenesses of Pope Pius IX., President Grant, and Moses with Tables of the Law descending from Mount Sinai; Places of Eminence, and other Works of Art. *

DR. CHING FUN—A CARD.—EDITOR STANDARD:—Through the medium of your paper I want to state the very great good that has been done me by Dr. Ching Fun of this city, next door Kwong Lee & Co. For 24 years I suffered with neuralgia on the brain, which baffled the skull of three first-class American physicians. Latterly bronchitis attacked my right lung, and my eyes became awfully inflamed. Despairing of ever being cured I placed myself as a last resort in the hands of Dr. Ching Fun, and after five months treatment I am a well man and feel that I cannot sound the eminent Chinese gentleman's praises too loudly, so that all my countrymen similarly affected may visit him and find relief. Respectfully,

JOHN RENTON, of Kentucky, U. S.

MAGIC SOAP.
Directions for Using Robinson's Magic Soap for doing a Large Family Washing in Two Hours, of Five or Six Dozen Pieces

1. Cut up fine a bar of the Soap, and put one-half of it into your boiler with sufficient water to cover your white clothes to be washed, and let the Soap dissolve; then put your clothes in, stirring them, and let them just come to a boil; then pull out clothes and water into a tub and let them soak twenty or thirty minutes, stirring them round in the tub occasionally to loosen the dirt. Such articles as collars, wristbands or any article very dirty, should be rubbed through the hands a little while soaking in order to thoroughly loosen the dirt before boiling.

2. While your clothes are soaking put the other half of your cut Soap into your boiler, with sufficient clean water to boil, and let it be heating. After your clothes have soaked wring them out well and put into your boiling water, and let boil from 5 to 10 minutes; then rinse, blue and hang out to dry. If the above directions are followed, we will guarantee your clothes clean and white.

3. For your colored and woollen clothes use the same water you soaked and boil your white clothes with, only heating it up again, and pour it over your colored and woollen clothes, and let soak the same as your white clothes, also rubbing them through your hands while soaking, if very dirty. Then rinse in clear water, warm as your hands will bear, and you will thus accomplish a large washing in two hours.

By cutting up a bar of this Soap into two gallons water, and let boil until thoroughly dissolved, and then leave to cool, you will have two gallons of beautiful SOFT SOAP, as good as Common Soap for general house purposes.
